

I strongly object to the proposed deregulation of rules regarding media ownership. If this goes forward, it won't be long before the big money moves in and moves out the little guy. That may be what you ultimately wish to happen but it is a wrong move in a democracy.